

INFORMATION

You will be accessing one of the centres belonging to the French Alternative Energies and Atomic Energy Commission (CEA), a state-owned scientific, technical and industrial research entity headquartered in Bâtiment Le Ponant D, 25 rue Leblanc, 75015 Paris.

The reception building at the entrance to this centre will ask for certain information from you.

This data is required to:

- Prepare your access to this CEA site
- Conduct the administrative enquiry to make sure there is nothing that could prevent you from gaining access to the site
- Issue your access badge
- Manage your access rights to facilities, as well as any rights to use IT and technical means where necessary
- Check any licences, permits and authorisations/ clearances needed to carry out your duties on the site.

The legal grounds for data processing are based on the principles of legitimate interest and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

It is required by law to collect this data, which can be accessed by CEA employees in charge of site security and access formalities, and by the CoSSeN¹ but only with respect to information required to conduct the administrative enquiry.

The CEA retains your data during the time required to manage its business dealings or your activity on site within the limit of its legal, contractual, tax and social obligations, and for the protection of its legitimate interests.

You have the right to access your data. You have the right to 1) ask us for access to your personal data, 2) to amend or 3) delete this personal data, and to 4) ask for the restriction of its processing.

To exercise these rights, you may contact the CEA centre's security officer or our delegate responsible for data protection issues via e-mail: dpd@cea.fr.

In the event of an unresolved dispute, you may contact the French data protection agency (CNIL) directly via its website at <https://www.cnil.fr/fr/agir>, or via post at: Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés, 3 Place de Fontenoy - TSA 80715, 75334 PARIS CEDEX 07.
